

Guidelines for Phi Beta Delta Award Nominations

Abigail Pereira

Eileen M. Evans Overall Outstanding Chapter Award

- Demonstration of outstanding chapter growth and development; expanded outreach within and beyond the academic community; service to Phi Beta Delta.

Faculty Award for Outstanding Contributions to International Education

- The curriculum vitae which accompany the faculty nomination should include all the teaching, research, creative, administrative, and service activities of an international nature associated with the nominee's career. Also, any honors or other forms of recognition of an international nature should be listed and/or described in either the nomination letter or in the three letters of support, which can be included with the nomination.
- Nominators and those writing letters of support are encouraged to provide the Awards Committee with evidence of the significance of the nominee's international activities and/or accomplishments and her/his stature in the field of international education.

Edward S. Blankenship Outstanding Staff Award

- The nomination materials for this award should clearly delineate the role the nominee has had in the establishment and/or development and/or maintenance of a Phi Beta Delta chapter on a campus.
- Nominators are encouraged to attest to the length of service to and degree of leadership provided to the local chapter by the nominee.
- Letters of support providing additional evidence of the nominee's activities on behalf of the local chapter and the international community are encouraged.

David Merchant International Student Award for Achievement

- Superior scholastic achievement is required and therefore either a transcript or a reference to the nominee's academic ability should be included in the nomination letter and/or a letter of reference.
- All the international activities in which the nominee has participated should be enumerated. These activities may be related to the campus but may also involve the larger community. Certainly the nominee's involvement with Phi Beta Delta should be highlighted.

Domestic Student Award for International Achievement

- Superior scholastic achievement is required and therefore either a transcript or reference to the nominee's academic ability should be included in the nomination letter and/or a letter of reference.
- A study abroad experience is required and should be described in the letter of nomination and/or letters of support
- All the international activities in which the nominee has participated should be enumerated. These activities may be related to the campus but may also involve the larger community. Certainly the nominee's involvement with Phi Beta Delta should be highlighted.