

Phi Beta Delta

Best Graduate Student Paper on an International Topic

Thank you for your interest in our competition. We really enjoy reading the range of international topics submitted. Current KU graduate students, especially PBD members, are eligible to submit one paper. See <https://international.ku.edu/phi-beta-delta-best-grad-student-paper> for the full criteria. Only complete submissions emailed to pbd@ku.edu by 5pm March 6 will be judged. A complete submission will include:

- A paper, including full citations, in PDF format
- A separate abstract
- This form

Nominee's name
Nominee's email address
Nominee's departmental affiliation
Paper or dissertation title
Name of class your paper was written for, if applicable
Name of the instructor of your class, if applicable

Submission category

Research Paper from a Course
Dissertation Chapter

Are you a member of Phi Beta Delta?

Yes
No

The top paper in each category for the Best Graduate Student Paper on an International Topic will be announced at the Phi Beta Delta Evening of International Chamber Music for Strings, Woodwinds, and Piano. The performance will be held on Sunday, March 22, 2020 at 7:30 in Swarthout Recital Hall. The program will feature music from Ecuador, China, Canada, Germany and Armenia, performed by students, faculty and alumni of the KU School of Music. A reception will follow. Are you interested in attending?

Yes
No	